

“Thirsty for God”
Psalms 42:1-43:5

Introduction: Book II, Two Psalms, “A maskil of the Sons of Korah”

I. Spiritual Thirst

- a. Sunday worship is to slake your thirst for God.
- b. Sunday fellowship is to salt your thirst for God.
- c. You need a spiritual IV drip during the week.

II. The Wise “Why?”s

- a. It’s a question of being, not of doing.
- b. It’s a question for your soul.
- c. It’s a question about the paradox of God’s presence.

III. Spiritual Thirst is a Desire for Heaven

- a. The heavenly bookends of the Bible.
- b. The House of God.
- c. The tension between the bookends.

Conclusion: In heaven, all your questions will be answered quenched—the moment you see Jesus’ face.
